Re: Letter of Reference for Cole Snyder

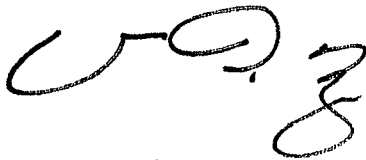

To Whom It May Concern;

This letter is in reference to, and in support of, Cole Snyder. I have had the pleasure of coaching Cole in baseball, and experienced his growth as a young man. Cole is a conscientious, hard worker on the field, and invariably respectful and polite off it. In my experience as his coach, he always sought to better his play and enhance his ability to contribute to the team, actively seeking advice and coaching to meet these ends. As a talented athlete, he inevitably "played up" competing with and against older age groups, and displayed a maturity and level of composure that allowed him to not only succeed but also excel.

It is my pleasure to recommend Cole as a young man with potential for a high level of success in his future endeavors.

If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.
